Is Argentina a good solar market?

Argentina is arguably one of the most interesting solar markets at the moment. The South American nation's solar sector has grown by leaps and bounds over the last three years. By the end of 2020, it had an installed solar capacity of 759 Megawatts. This figure is shocking considering that Argentina's solar capacity stood at 8 Megawatts in 2017.

Is Argentina's solar market ripe?

Currently, Argentina's solar market is ripe with lucrative opportunities for solar installers and professionals. If you play your cards right, you may become one of the beneficiaries of this budding market. There are several local and multinational solar equipment suppliers operating within Argentina's nascent solar market.

What is a microinverter solar system?

Typically, microinverters are "distributed" inverters. Solar PV systems with microinverters have a small inverter installed for each individual solar panel. Instead of sending energy from every panel to a single inverter, microinverters convert the DC energy to AC energy on the roof itself.

What type of solar inverter should a solar installer use?

As a solar installer, you can guide your customers, which type of inverter is suitable for their home or office. Here are the details on each type of inverter: String inverters are standard centralized inverters. Usually, a majority of small solar systems use string inverters or "centralized" inverters.
