

Which is better outdoor solar lights or electric lights

Is solar landscape lighting better than electric?

Solar landscape lighting is gaining popularity as more people become environmentally aware; however, low-voltage electric lights are a proven, time-tested lighting option. Before you make your final decision on which lighting option is best for you, take the time to compare both options.

Are solar landscape lights worth it?

On the downside, solar landscape lights don't usually offer the brightness of low voltage electric lights. Brightness is a large consideration if the lights are placed in areas that don't receive much direct sunlight. Maintenance can also become an issue.

Can solar lights be used outside?

'Most solar lights can be kept outdoors in your garden during all seasons due to the thoughtfully chosen weatherproof materials and powder coating protection,' elaborates Richard, Director at outdoor living specialists Harbour Lifestyle. 'They can be used in temperatures up to -20°C, and are well protected from UV rays, moisture, mould, and frost.'

Are solar-powered lights energy efficient?

They are exceptionally energy efficient because they run off the energy produced by the sun and they are virtually a no-cost lighting option. Instead of dying or blowing out, like conventional bulbs, LED lights simply lose brightness over time. Solar-powered lights don't contain mercury.

Are solar powered garden lights eco-friendly?

The green credentials of this lighting is a bonus, too. 'Solar powered lights are more environmentally friendly compared to mains or battery powered garden lights, as the batteries are charged by a natural source of sunlight,' adds Claire from Bassett, Senior Product Manager, Lights4Fun.
