Canada's healthcare system is facing a growing crisis -- a nursing shortage that's leaving hospitals overwhelmed, patients waiting longer for care, and healthcare workers burning out.

The best solar fans typically come with a 25 year, or limited lifetime warranty. These are a number of cheaper solar fans on the market that last on average for 3-5 years. Replacing a cheap solar fan every few years however becomes cost prohibitive. We would recommend buying and installing a fan with a better warranty for savings and peace of mind.

This is a solar fan with two separate fan motors that are angled outward. This allows for maximum circulation throughout the car, rather just blowing in the same direction. You also have the luxury of choosing if you want just one fan on or both of them. The Volwco brand is another brand model that features a rechargeable battery for the no-so ...
